Glory to God in the Church

Ephesians 3:20-21

Paul prays for the Ephesian Church and is led to praise God for all that He can work in and through them! There are four observations I want to make from Paul's soaring here that gives us tremendous help and encouragement to bring Glory to God:

1. God is at work, especially in the Church (Eph. 3:19a, 1:19, 3:16–19).
2. God works through our prayers, but even greater things than we can ask or think through our prayers (Eph. 3:19b).
3. God works according to His powerful Spirit (Eph. 3:20a).
4. God works for His own praise and glory in the Church and Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever (Eph. 3:20b).

Next week: In Ephesians 4:1–3, Paul exhorts the church to walk consistently in the way they have been called—by grace. Christians are to live graciously as they have been shown incredible grace by God Himself and are to display this wonderful grace to one another in the church!
