New Wardrobes – Part 1

Ephesians 4:25-28

If we truly have come to know and experience the riches of God’s grace through the gospel, we have been given a new wardrobe through the Spirit. People should recognize us through what we “wear”, as we...

I. Exchange falsehood in our speech with truthfulness (v.25)

A. recognizing that truthfulness is loving (Lev 19:18; Eph 4:15)

B. recognizing how necessary truthfulness is for the body’s _____

II. Exchange unrighteous anger with trust in the sovereign God (v.26-27; Rom 12:17-21)

A. recognizing the wisdom of dealing with it _____ (v.26)

B. recognizing Satan’s schemes (v.27; 2 Cor 2:11; Eph 6:11)

III. Exchange our tendency to steal with a _____ heart (v.28)

A. recognizing our call to responsible, disciplined living

B. recognizing the joy of meeting others’ needs

Next week: New Wardrobes, Part 2! We’ll be focusing on the things we say – corrupting or upbuilding speech, and the need for kind, loving, forgiving hearts as we live out our lives in the body, thus imitating God himself. Our text: Eph 4:29-5:2.
