The LORD Reigns

Psalm 99

One phrase grips the Psalmist to write his song: The LORD Reigns! He then celebrates God's Kingship by focusing on both God's transcendence and imminence. Let's consider with him:

1. God's Transcendent Holiness (99:1-5) and God's Imminent Holiness (99:6-9).
 - a. Transcendence: God is High, Above, and Beyond all else
 - b. Imminence: Draws Close, Near
2. Christ Displays God's Transcendence and Imminence
 - a. In His Incarnation (John 1)
 - b. In His Death, Resurrection, and Ascension (Phil. 2:5-11)
3. Christians Exalt God in Christ Transcendence and Imminence
 - a. Individually (Eph. 1:15-23)
 - b. Congregationally (Eph. 2:19-22; Heb. 12:18-24)

Next week: We start a new Fall sermon series entitled The Genius of Gender: God's Good Gift of the Sexes. We'll be starting with the foundational text when it comes to who we are as people, male and female: Genesis 1 and 2.
