Conquering Fear in the New Year

Psalm 27

There are few people who launch into a new year without any fears or anxieties. Let's face it: the future can be scary, on so many levels. One man who had every right to be consumed with fear was David. Yet he models for us here in Psalm 27 how to conquer fear. From his inspired prayer to the LORD we're encouraged to do the following:

I. By Faith, Claim Our S_____ . (v.1-3)

II. Be S_____ in Our Passion. (v.4-6)

III. Recognize the Reality of the S_____ for Faith. (v.7-12)

IV. Be S_____ and Wait upon the LORD. (v.13-14)

Next week: We'll be starting a new sermon series through the marvelous book of Ephesians, and plumbing the depths of the riches of God's grace (which should result in grace-transformed lives!) Our text for next week will be Eph 1:1-6.
